Numbers and Colours - Anna Buys Clothes

1. Underline the colour words in the text.

Anna Buys Clothes

Anna always wears blue jeans and a red, green, white and yellow T-shirt. Her mum does not like that. Today Anna and her mum go shopping. Anna says: "I'd like blue jeans and a red, green, white and yellow T-shirt." "Anna!" her mum shouts. The shop assistant brings many T-shirts and many pairs of jeans. "Look, here is a light red T-shirt and a black pair of jeans." Anna does not like red.

"Look, here is a pink T-shirt and a purple pair of jeans," the shop assistant says. But Anna doesn't like pink and she doesn't like purple. "Look, here is a light green T-shirt and a grey pair of jeans," her mum says. But Anna says: "But I want blue jeans and a red, green, white and yellow T-shirt." The shop assistant has an idea. "Look Anna, I've got a white dress with red, green and yellow flowers. Do you like it?" Anna is happy. "Yes, that's great," she says. She is very happy.
